

Fees and financial information

What matters at Chetham's is musical potential, not financial means. Around 85% of students who are UK residents receive up to full funding through the Department for Education (DfE).

This is made possible by the Government's Music and Dance Scheme (MDS), which is designed to enable young, talented musicians and dancers to receive full time education and training at a specialist school irrespective of financial income.

This guide sets out most of the information families will need when considering applying for a place at Chetham's. If you have further questions, please contact the Finance Director's PA, Kay Birkett, on 0161 838 7211.

Financial assistance from the Music and Dance Scheme	If family income is below £13,450 per annum then all school fees will be paid by a grant from the DfE. If family income is above £13,450 p.a. (for boarding students) or £17,000 p.a. (for day students) then parental contributions will be based on a means-tested sliding scale. Parental contributions will be adjusted each year based on changes in family income and increases in school fees.
Annual procedure	Annually (normally in mid to late summer), parents complete a grant application, which includes a declaration of income. This declaration includes all family gross income, excluding some non-taxable, benefit-type income such as child benefit, mobility allowance, etc. The Director of Finance, on behalf of the DfE, then calculates the total family income and determines the amount of fees to be paid by parents.
Other assistance	If parents are receiving a full MDS grant, the DfE also offers support towards the cost of concert clothing. If students live more than three miles from the school then support for public transport costs might also be available for families on low incomes.
Further financial assistance sources might include:	— Local Authorities — Charitable Trusts (the internet is a good source for these) — Musicians Benevolent Fund Chetham's also has a small Bursary fund, which may be able to provide financial support to parents in case of extreme hardship for some expenses, e.g. field trips.
Choristers	Choristers are admitted under a special scheme whereby they receive a grant (currently £5,500 p.a.) from Manchester Cathedral, and parents fund the balance. Parents deal directly with the Cathedral on financial matters but ultimately it is the parents who are responsible for paying the school fees. Choristers are specifically excluded from the MDS, though there is nothing to prevent a former chorister who passes the mandatory audition subsequently joining the Scheme and continuing to study at Chetham's.

Relevant income' includes the gross income received (and receivable) by parents and is based on the previous tax year's figures (for example, for the academic year 2026/27, relevant income is based on income for the tax year 2025/26). Gross income refers to income before all deductions, including employee pension contributions. Gross income includes self-employed earnings, capital gains, income from rental property, interest, and dividends including ISA's. It also includes interest earned on children's ISA savings. Capital assets such as savings or property are not included, but any income generated from those assets (interest, rent, etc.) is included. Taxable redundancy payments are included.
What might we have to pay for, on top of school fees?	Extra charges, which are invoiced termly in arrears, may include items such as extra instrumental tuition, music scores, socials, non-uniform day donations, instrument repairs, weekend trips out, taxi fares, concerts/theatre trips, lost property, lost workbooks and damage repairs.
Our other child goes to another independent school and we have to pay their school fees. Can this be taken into account when the fees are being calculated?	No. Parents are entitled to make choices as to how they spend their income.

How much pocket money should a student have?	The school cannot recommend any particular amount of pocket money as all students' needs and family circumstances are different.
What is the £50 Account Scheme?	This is a scheme whereby parents of boarding students deposit an amount of £50 per term with the school and the student can then, with permission from the boarding house, withdraw amounts up to £50 during that term. Juniors and students in years 7 to 11 can be included in this scheme.
If my child has to leave Chetham's suddenly, what happens about fees?	As per the Terms & Conditions parents are required to give a full term's notice in writing to the Joint Principal, Miss Smith. A full term's fees in lieu will be charged without receipt of notice. Parents should note that the MDS grant is not payable if a student has left the school and a full term's fees would be billed. A full terms fees for a non means tested boarding student would be £15,246 (£18,316 overseas) and for a day student £11,812 (£14,008 overseas) in 2026/27. Fees in lieu for fee-paying students are a term's fees, based on the full fee at the time.
Is the deposit included in the fees?	No, the deposit is a separate item and is charged as an extra to all parents. It is a refundable amount that is added to the first bill and returned when a student leaves the school, subject to all charges being cleared.
My income has fallen unexpectedly. Can the fees be adjusted?	Please contact the Finance Directors PA, Kay Birkett, on 0161 838 7211 to discuss any changes in financial circumstances. Parents may contact the School mid-year to request a Current Year Assessment if their household income has reduced unexpectedly by 15% or more. Approval of a CYA is subject to approval by the Department for Education and must be supported by appropriate evidence. Please refer to the MDS guidance notes for the types of cases in which a decision to allow a CYA may be adopted. The School applies on your behalf for a review of your parental contribution and a Current Year Assessment. The Department for Education's decision is final.
I've just received my bill and I can't pay. What can I do?	You must contact the Finance Directors PA, Kay Birkett, on 0161 838 7211 as early as possible to avoid accruing unnecessary debt. As per the Terms & Conditions on acceptance of a place at Chetham's, parents have a contractual financial obligation to settle bills within two weeks of issue. As a Charity, it is crucial for the operation of the School that parents pay their bills on time and in full. We ask that parents have emergency plans for for unexpected life events. An example of emergency planning is to apply for School fee insurance. Insurance helps parents protect their children's education from unexpected life events and ensures your child's independent school education can continue seamlessly. The School does not offer payment by instalments or further financial support. Parents are encouraged to consider applying to School Fee Plan, which enables fees to be paid by instalments before financial difficulties arise. The School does not offer individual payment plans or deferred payment arrangements.

Is Chetham's part of the Assisted Instrument Purchase Scheme?	No, as an independent school, Chetham's is not part of this scheme.

You've notified me that we have been awarded a travel grant from the Music and Dance scheme. When will I receive the money?	The travel grant is an annual award and is given as a credit on the termly bill. For example, if a travel grant has been awarded for £300, £100 would be credited against each termly bill once travel receipts have been received. If the travel grant is more than the amount that is owed for other items then the school will issue credit for the balance to parents' school account.
Why do I have to pay for name tapes and laundry bags?	It is essential that parents of all students send their child to Chetham's with all clothing (including PE kit) and towels clearly named. In order to keep the lost property cupboard as clear as possible, the Laundry keeps spare name tapes for all boarders, the cost of which is £8 for 36 tapes. To avoid damage to small and delicate items of clothing, the laundry also provides boarding students with two large net laundry bags at a cost of £14. Charges for name tapes and net laundry bags will be charged to all new boarders on their first bill and thereafter as required.
I have a query about my bill. Who should I contact?	Please contact the Finance Officer, Fara Omisakin, on 0161 838 7209 or FaraOmisakin@chethams.com
Do I need to insure my child's possessions?	Chetham's strongly recommends that parents insure their child's possessions, including instruments. The School is not liable for damaged, lost or stolen possessions.
