

Going to see The Storm Whale

The concert will start at 11:30am

We will need our tickets

We will watch with other families

The Stoller Hall

We will be in the Stoller Hall

The Stoller Hall is a big space with fixed seating and a tall ceiling

There will be a flat space at the front where we can stay in our own chairs, or get up and move.

Meet the Musicians

We can enter the Stoller Hall 30 mins before it starts

We can hear the instruments before the concert

We can meet the grown-ups playing the instruments

We can get settled into our seats

Finding our seat

Our ticket will tell us where to sit

The friendly staff can help us find our seat

The seats are made of wood with orange covers

We will sit together as a group

During the Concert

- Lights might change but they will stay on
- The doors will stay open
- We will hear a story
- We will hear live music
- We will see large images and pictures
- The story is about a child and a whale
- We may be asked to join in. We don't have to
- The music will stop and start
- The music might be loud or quiet.
- People might clap which can be loud
- People might move around

When the Concert Finishes

- The music ends
- Everyone leaves together
- This can be busy, but we can wait till it's quieter

During the concert I can

- ✓ Make sounds
- ✓ Move around
- ✓ Join in and take part
- ✓ Just watch and listen
- ✓ Cover my ears
- ✓ Wear ear defenders

If it feels too much or I feel worried, I can

- ✓ Tell my grown-up
- ✓ Ask for help
- ✓ Leave the room
- ✓ Join in again at any time

Breaks and Quiet Spaces

- There are quieter spaces where I can take a break
- I can ask a grown up for help
- I can ask a member of Stoller Hall staff for help
- The Stoller Hall staff are friendly
- Stoller Hall staff wear black shirts and blue lanyards

When The Storm Whale finishes, we can go and join in other activities at the Family Festival
